

1

Impact on P-12 learning and development

U of A demonstrates its graduates contribute to an expected level of P-12 student-learning.

2

Indicators of teaching effectiveness

U of A demonstrates its graduates effectively apply the professional knowledge, skills, and dispositions that their preparation experiences were designed to achieve.

“The new Razorback Legacy Program will ask previous candidates about their impact on P-12 learning and development and how they measure that impact. Each year employers will be asked a question about our graduate(s) and their impact on P-12 learning and development.”

WHAT OUR EMPLOYERS SAY

U of A graduates effectively teach in their content area

Would recommend that their school hire graduates from the University of Arkansas

3

Satisfaction of employers and employment milestones

U of A demonstrates employment milestones and employer satisfaction with graduates' preparation for their assigned responsibilities in working with P-12 students.

When rating preparedness, U of A graduates are rated higher than the state average on TESS indicators.

4

Satisfaction of graduates

U of A graduates' perceive their preparation relevant to the responsibilities they confront on the job and that the preparation was effective.

90% >

FELT WELL PREPARED

How well were you prepared too...

Use engaging teaching methods?

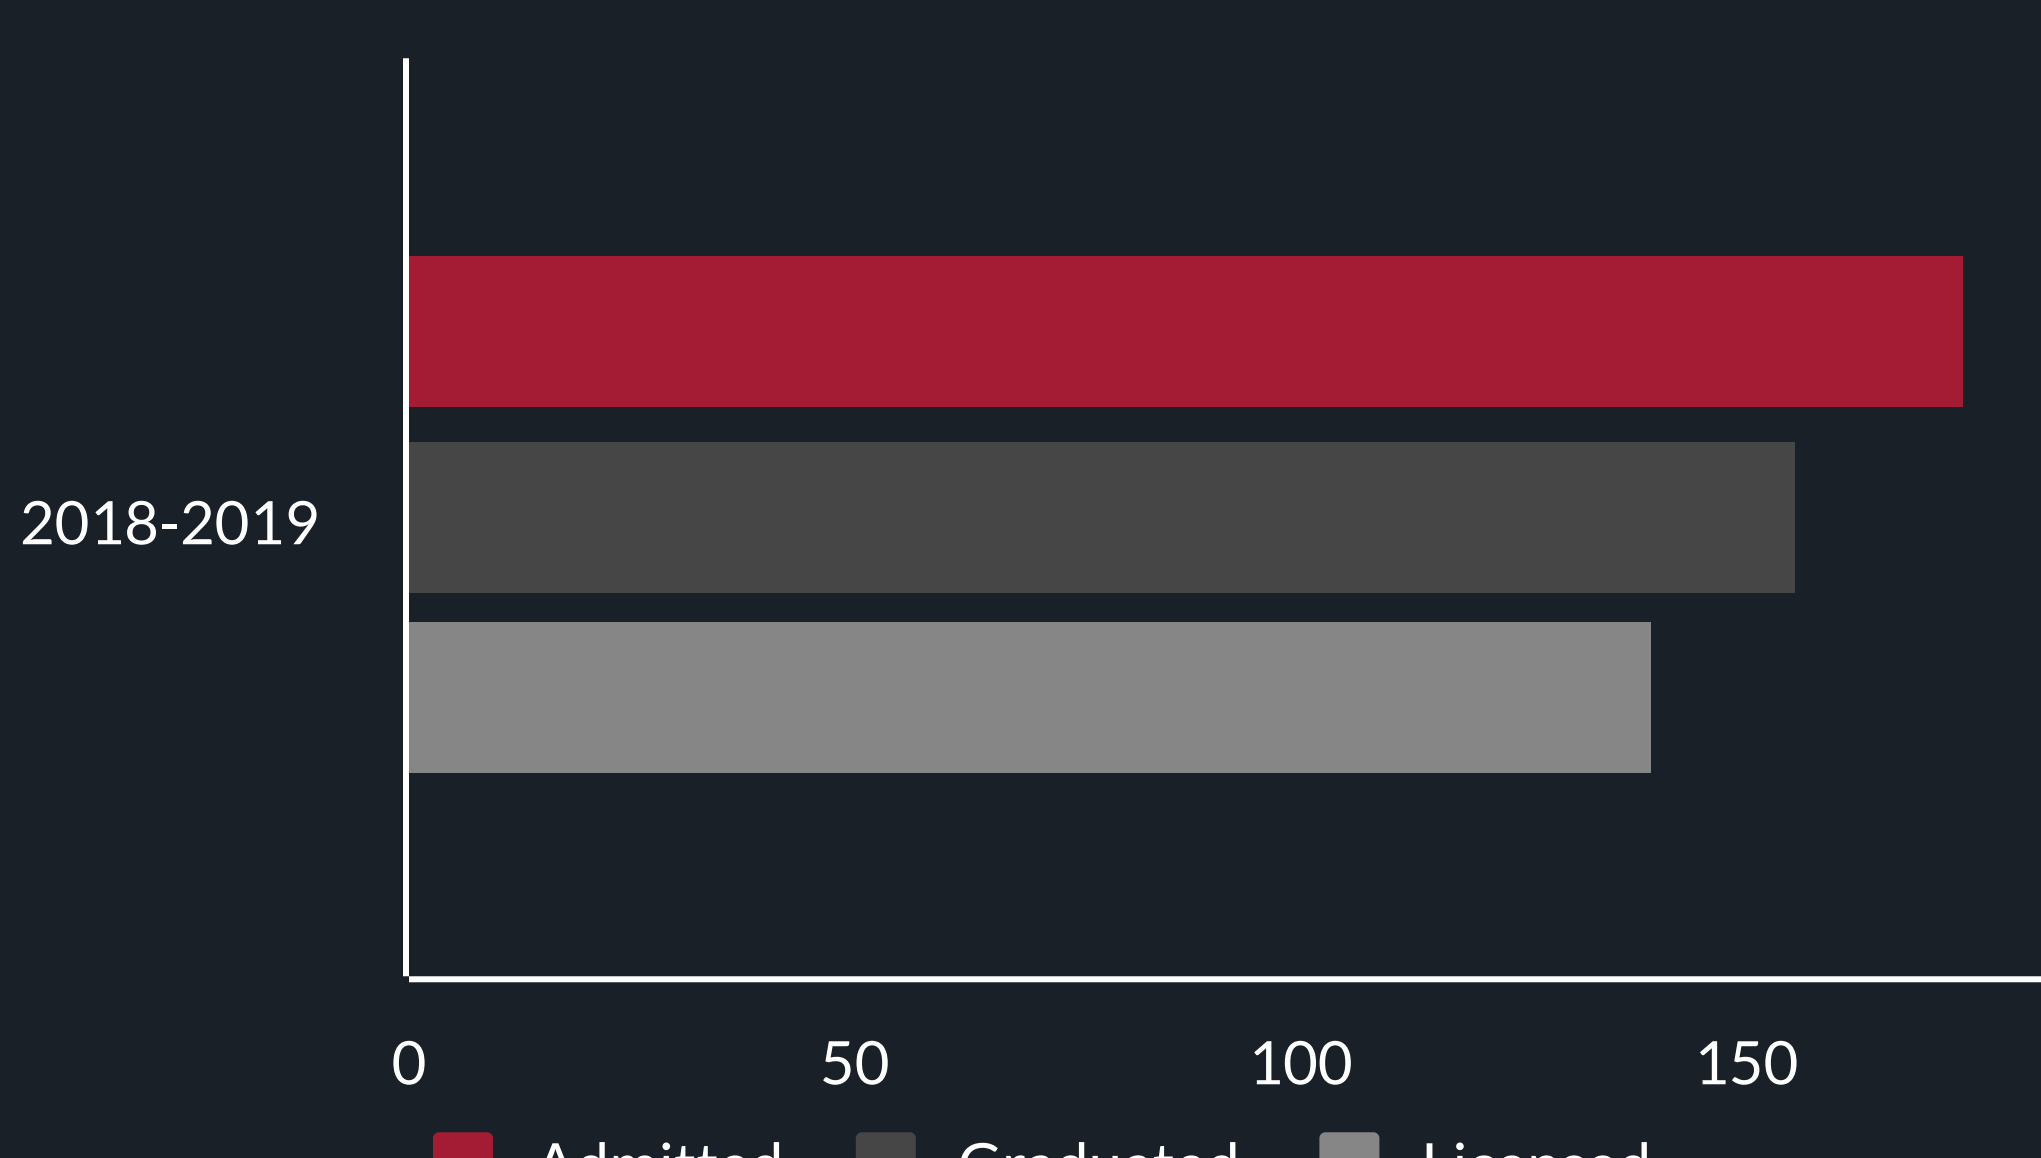

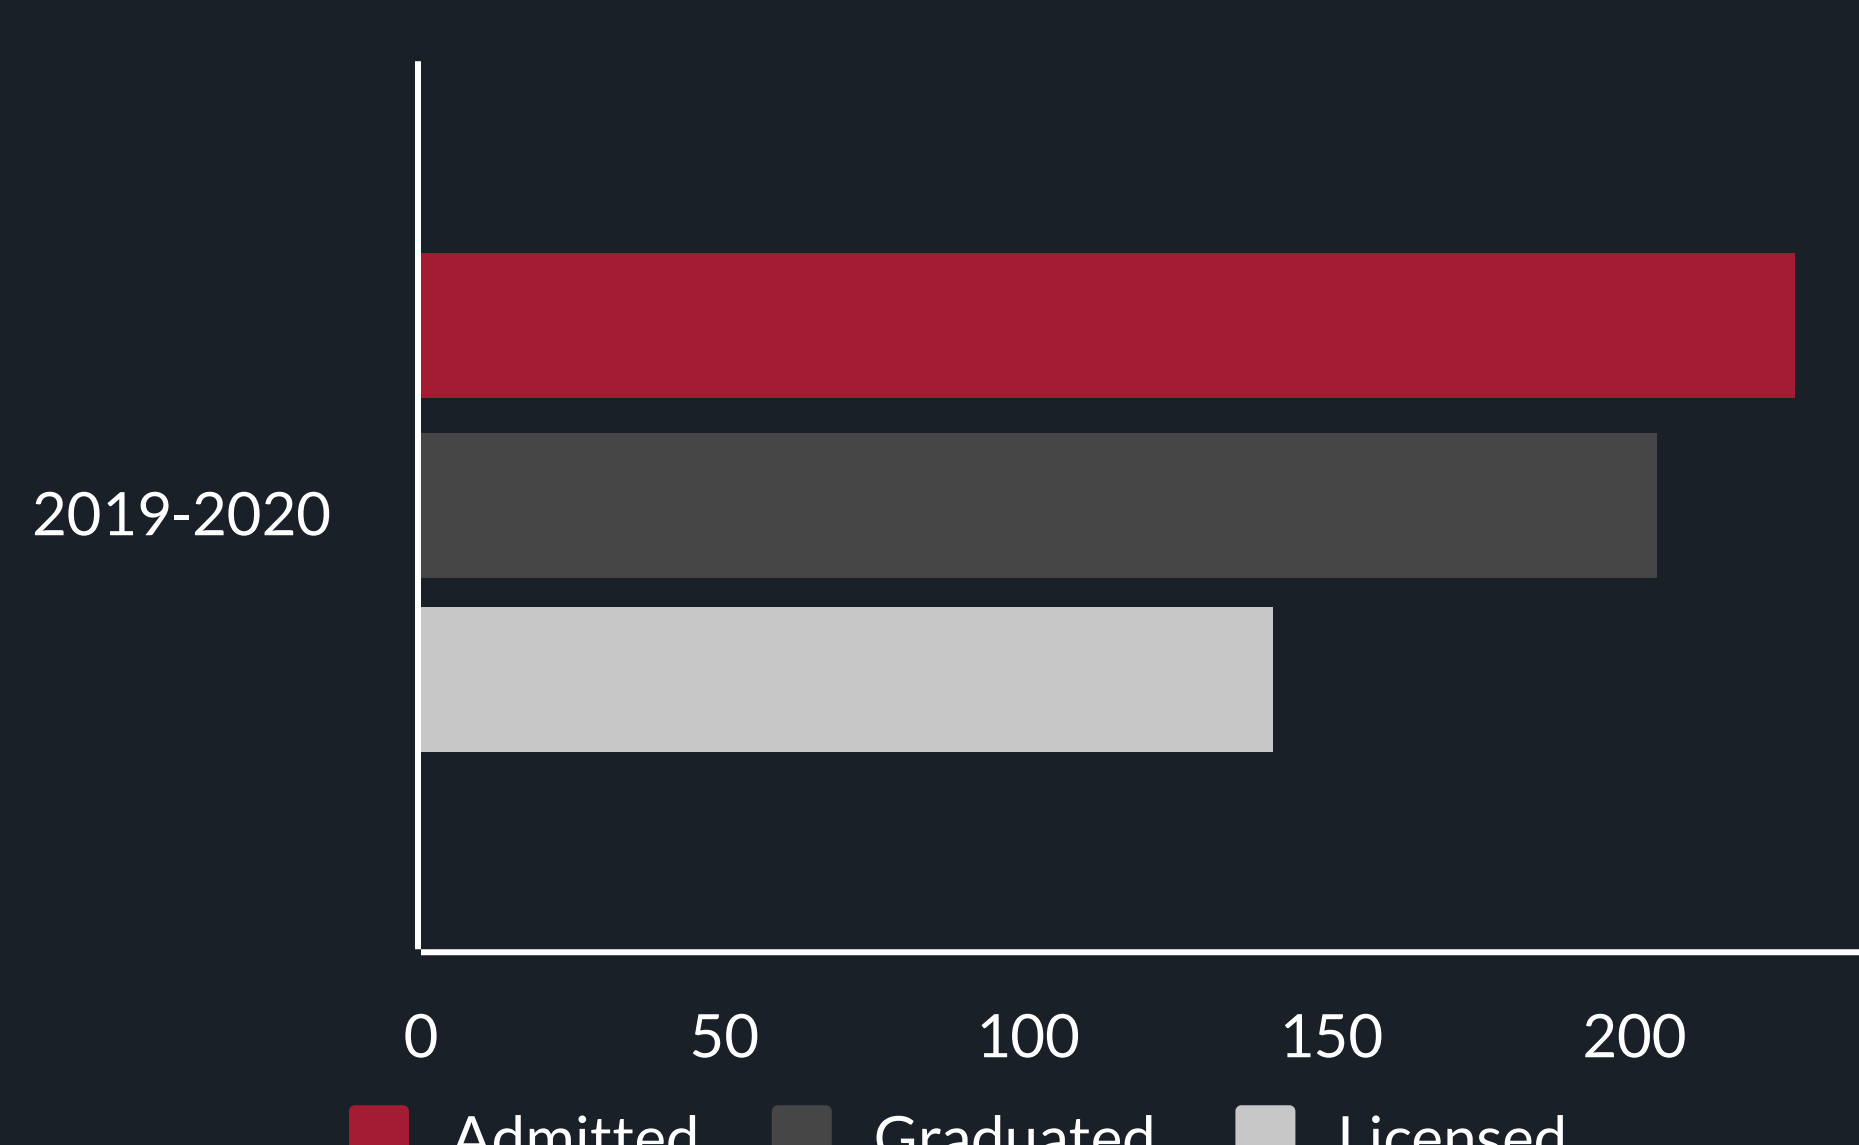

Manage a classroom?

what really matters to our graduates

6

Licensure rates

U of A demonstrates graduates' ability to meet licensing requirements and any additional state requirements.

5

Graduation rates

U of A graduation rates are consistently over 90%.

90%

2019-2020

7

Employability

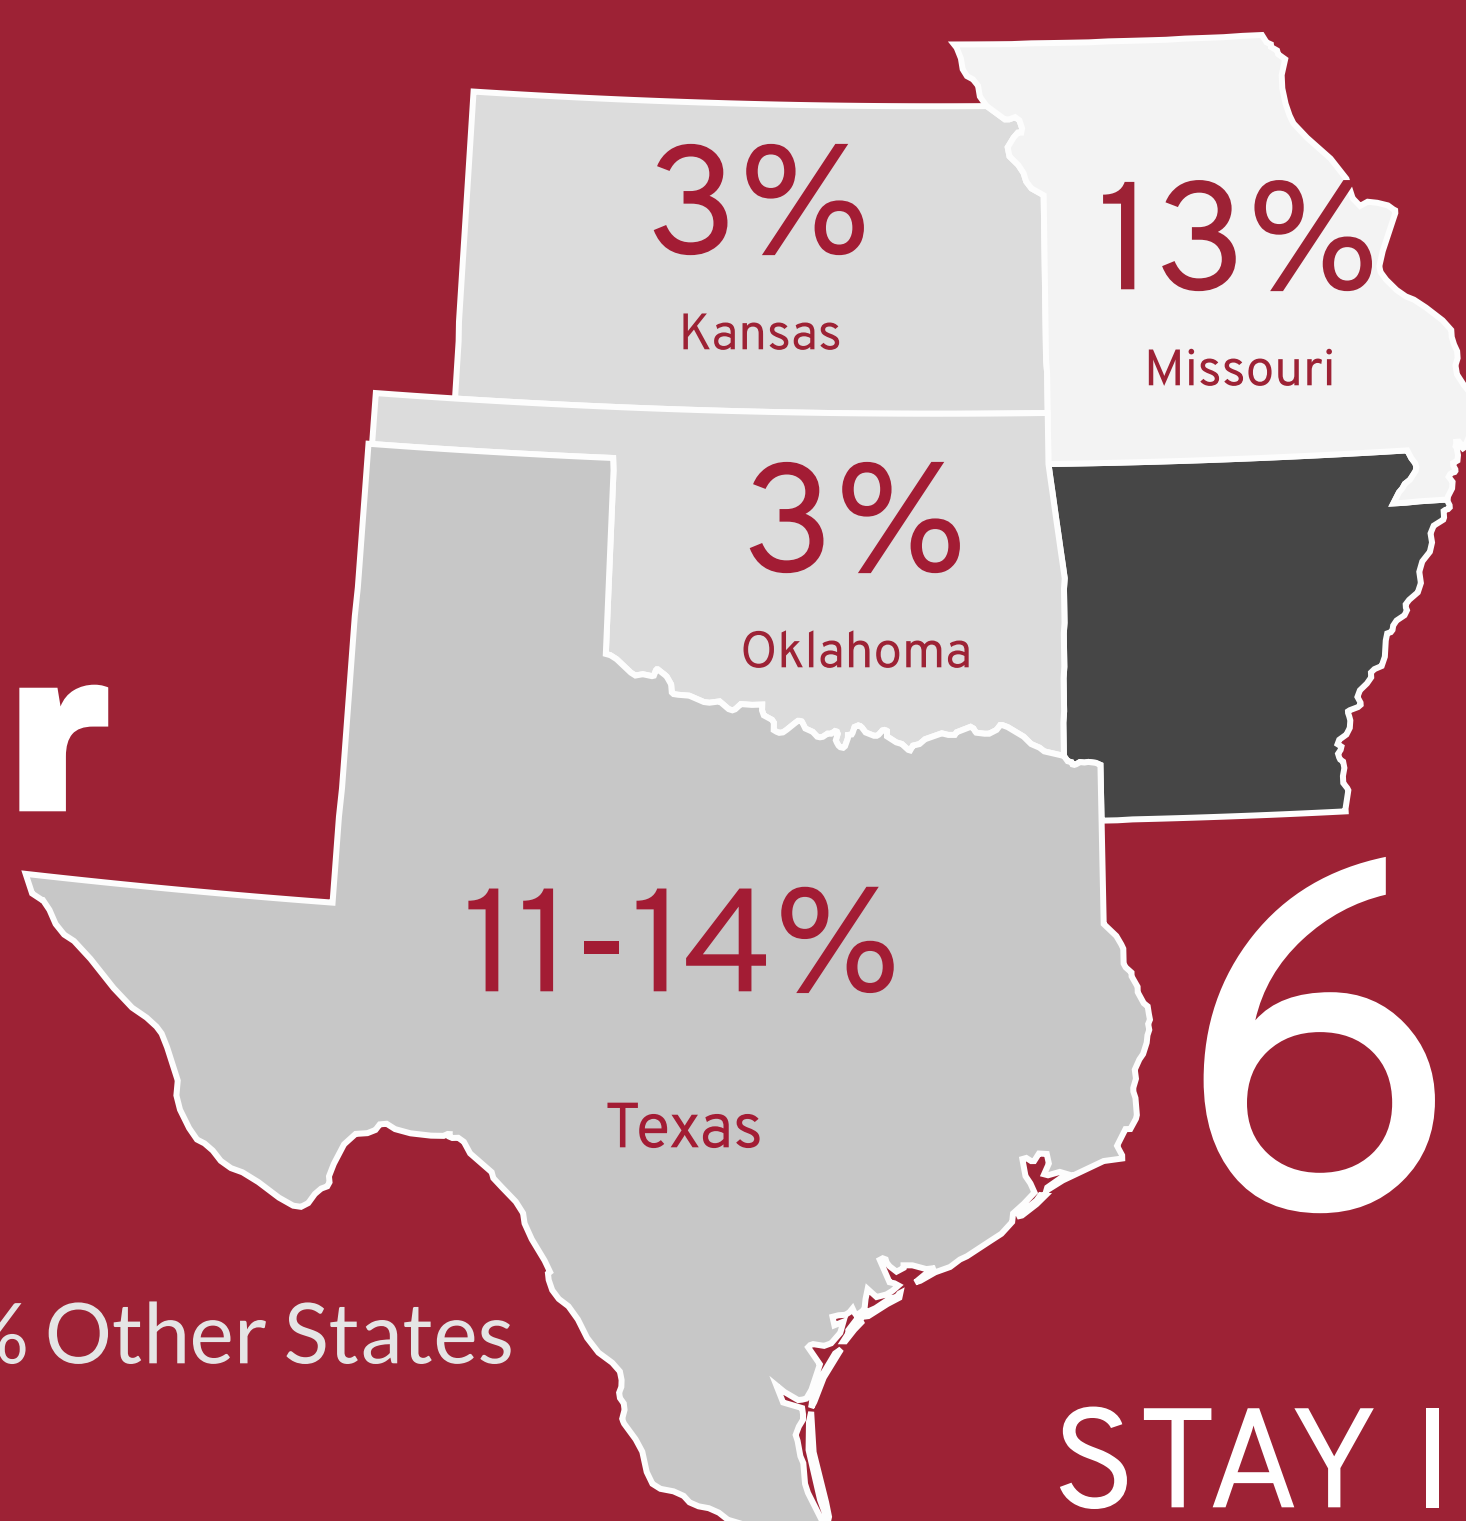

U of A graduates are able to be hired in education positions for which they have been prepared.

8

Student loan default rates and other consumer information

Where are our graduates?

63%

STAY IN ARKANSAS